>According to the OHSAA website and Officials Handbook, the Track &
>Field Officials uniform is the following:

>"The track and field officials uniform shall be dark blue trousers (no >denim blue), skirt or shorts and the OHSAA Track & Field Officials' >shirt. Official OHSAA apparel must be purchased from an OHSAA authorized dealer.
>A dark blue jacket is required when a jacket is worn. Sponsors of >invitationals and conference meets must further identify the clerks, >starters, referees and head field judges by distinctively colored sleeve, >hat or vest. No emblems, patches or insignia of any type other than those >referring to high school track and field may be worn by an official >while officiating Track and field tournaments. EXCEPTION: The >authorized OHSAA-registered officials patch may be worn on the left >breast pocket or on the left with the top of the patch 1" from the >seam."

>Shall the above uniform be worn at all Track & Field contests or just >at District, Regional and State Tournaments?

>Please clarify the issue for our members!
